Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from An Oration on the Death of Abraham Lincoln: Late President of the United States Fellow-Citizens: We live in one of the most eventful periods of the world s history since the dawn of civilization upon earth. Not a day passes but some thrilling incident occurs - some deed, dark and bloody, is committed - some startling event transpires - some brilliant achievement witnessed, - which will furnish material that will live in history or in song. The annals of the world afford few parallels to what the American people have witnessed - the scenes and hardships they have passed through - the part in the great drama they have acted, in the past four years of bloody war. The dark ages - the horrors of the French Revolution - the iniquities of the Spanish Inquisition - the treachery, perfidy and barbarity of Italian scenes - and the ferocity of savage warfare, - present not a page so dark and damning, mournful and heart-rending - so diabolical and wicked, and so cruelly inexcusable, as has blighted and blasted the fair name of our Country in that short space of time. All Christendom stands aghast at the horrid picture, and Humanity weeps tears of blood over the sad reality it presents.
